SPEAKER: That sure was a noisy no. The amendment is adopted.

CLERK: Now, I have a motion, Mr. President. Read.

SPEAKER: The chair recognizes Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, as I understand, if I'm incorrect, I hope somebody corrects me, there are an unknown number of County Commissioners who do not want to raise the salaries in the area this bill would apply beyond what they now are. Now it would seem to me that we are in a position of the majority of County Commissioners trying to force those to do something they don't want to do because if they wanted to do it, they could do it. Now, why should we, for example, yield to the request of the majority of County Commissioners to force the County Commissioners in counties where apparently with the knowledge and I presume acceptance of their people they don't want to raise their salaries. Now it would seem to me the County people ought to live with
